

Photo by Carol Donlan

Emerging artist — Debra M. Lee of Crosswoods Drive has become an artist member of the Potomac Craftsmen Fiber Gallery. The Gallery exhibits and markets the arts of its 70 members and is located in the Torpedo Factory Art Center at 105 N. Union Street, Studio 18 in historic Old Town Alexandria. Each show is juried and runs for four to six weeks. As an instructor and designer in hand-knitting, Debra is developing a series of hand-knit wall art and wearable art. The photo shows Debra with her first Gallery piece called, "Seeing Dots" which combines different knitting techniques to create stripes with dots that appear and disappear when viewed from different angles.